

THE OAK PARK ARTS DISTRICT

Artist/Vendor Application for

WHAT'S BLOOMING ON HARRISON

Highlighting

Emerging Artists

MAY 22, 2010

12:00 - 8:00 P.M.

The Oak Park Arts District is located in Historic Oak Park, on Harrison Street, west of Austin Boulevard & east of Ridgeland Avenue, one block north of I-290.

This nine block area is known for its art galleries, artist's studios, one-of-a-kind boutiques & restaurants.

What's Blooming is one of three art walks that are held during the year. It is an outdoor event, rain or shine.

The Particulars:

$35.00 participation fee due w/application.

Tables will be placed on the sidewalks along Harrison Street. Artist/vendor space will be approximately 16' wide.

This application and an image of your artwork (if applicable) needs to be submitted for review by April 9th. Artists/vendors will be notified by April 23rd whether they are accepted into the show.

Use your own table(s) & chair(s) or rent from us.

Sorry, no tents are allowed.

Publicity:

This event is promoted through flyers, posters, print & internet advertising.

As artists are accepted into the show, their name will be posted on the Oak Park Arts District Facebook page.

Artists/vendors will also be listed on the Oak Park Arts District's website.

The sooner you get your application in and approved, the sooner your name will appear.
